

WINNERS THIS WEEK

Infants Polly for her fabulous attitude to learning

Upper Junior Finley for his superb art, maths and story writing

Lower Junior: Sonny for working really hard on his handwriting in his story

Class 1 The season is really upon us now in the infants. Reception children have been enjoying dressing in character to learn about the Christmas story. We have heard lots of super voices as they get in to role, then writing sentences about the Christmas story. Y1 and Y2 have continued with time, from o'clock to understanding half past, quarter past and quarter to. Please keep asking your child 'what time is it?' to help them really get to grips with time telling. We have also continued with our draft writing then redrafting to improve the original piece.

Class 2 We have been investigating ways to create calculations that total 100 as well as adding fractions in maths. In English reading, we are developing the skills of inference and deduction as well as how to write about our personal response to a piece of text. In writing we are refining our dictionary skills and have been learning about imagery in poetry too.

Class 3 This week in English the upper juniors have been busy writing and publishing their science fiction stories. Next week they will share these with the lower juniors. Everyone has worked really hard crafting and improving their writing. We have been very impressed with their ideas. In P.E. we have been choreographing group dances following on from the modern and ballet dancing we have been studying over the last two weeks. Again, we have been impressed by their ideas and teamwork skills.
